TASMANIA Police has advised that there has been a significant increase in the number of telephone calls being received in relation to a “Tax Office” scam. The caller states they are from the Tax Office or other government department and that you owe them money. They tell you, a warrant will be issued if you do not pay the debt. Please do not pay any money. It is a scam. You can report the matter on 6173 2781.

A REMINDER that Project O will be holding its 24-hour Colourathon from 10am this Friday (20 May) at the Coastal Pods, at the Wynyard Waterfront. Funds raised at the event help local women’s shelters to support the children who stay there. For more information and to show your support please visit www.startsomegood.com/24-hour-colourathon

ALSO a reminder that the will be a public meeting on a proposed development of the former site of the Seaway motel at Boat Harbour will be held this Saturday (21 May). Vos Construction, which has owned the site for a number of years, will release its plans for the development and will consult with the public. The meeting will take place at 2pm on Saturday at the Boat Harbour Surf Lifesaving Club.

PLEASE note that a section of the Inglis River walking track has been closed until further notice due to safety concerns. The section of track that has been closed is between the Inglis River and Gibbons Street, adjacent to Big Creek. Council apologises for any inconvenience. Please contact Council’s Engineering Department on 6443 8351 for further information.