
What is WWYL?

Waratah-Wynyard Youth Leaders (WWYL) is a youth group for people between the ages of 13-20 who work together to make Waratah-Wynyard municipality a great place for young people to live. At meetings we discuss topics that impact young people and provide WWYL with the opportunity to review and give feedback on Council activities.

What would you have to do?

- Attend one meeting per month
- Review and provide feedback on Council activities
- Offer your time and support to the community
- Show respect for your fellow WWYL members and others

What is in it for you?

- Feel connected to your community
- Make a difference in your town
- Learn new skills
- Meet new people

What do I need to bring to the table?

- A positive and inclusive attitude
- Willingness to contribute and participate
- Respect for fellow WWYL members and the wider community
- Commitment to follow through
