SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE ALLEGATIONS AND COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURE

1. OVERVIEW

These procedures outline how allegations and complaints made under the Reportable Conduct Scheme are to be received, recorded, managed, investigated and reported to the Independent Regulator.

The Reportable Conduct Scheme and the appointment of an Independent Regulator is established in Tasmania under the Child and Youth Safe Organisations Act 2023 (Tas) and comes into effect from 1 January 2024.

A report must be made if Council receives a complaint regarding a ‘reportable allegation’ or ‘reportable conviction’.

Reportable Allegation – Information that leads a person to form a reasonable suspicion that a Council ‘worker’ (as defined in Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy) has committed reportable conduct, whether or not the alleged reportable conduct occurred within the course of the worker’s duties, and regardless of when the alleged reportable conduct occurred.

Reportable Conviction – A conviction for an offence that involves reportable conduct, regardless of when the conduct or conviction occurred.

The Act requires that the General Manager of Council (or an officer within the organisation on behalf of the General Manager) must, if they become aware of a reportable allegation or conviction against a worker of Council, notify the Independent Regulator. Each failure to report can carry a fine of up to $23,400. Liability for the fine remains with the General Manager. The Independent Regulator must be notified within 3 business days of a reportable allegation or reportable conviction against a ‘worker’ of Council.

Explanation of “Reportable Conduct”

2. RECEIVING THE COMPLAINT

Complaints may be received;

- in person,
- by phone,
- email,
- letter or
- social media.

Details of the complaint should be recorded in Council's administrative records system as per all official correspondence with Council and forwarded in the first instance to the General Manager and Manager Governance and Information Systems, along with all other relevant information provided by the complainant.

Complaints may be received from;

- a parent,
- carer,
- a child,
- staff member,
- volunteer or
- any other members of the community.

 Staff should call 000 if it is apparent a child is in immediate danger.

3. RECORDING THE COMPLAINT

On behalf of the General Manager, the Manager Governance and Information Systems or People & Safety Officer should record the key complaint details, such as;

- details about the complainant,
- any additional communication or support required;
- details about the subject of the complaint (including any former names or aliases of the accused worker, if known, date of birth),
- the complaint issues,
- if Tasmania Police have been notified (if a reportable allegation),
- how the complaint will be resolved or investigated and risks to be managed (see Appendix A: Complaint Report Form).

The Complaint Report Form must be provided to the Independent Regulator within 3 business days of receiving the complaint.

In the first instance and where relevant, Council staff should offer referral to support services for the person reporting the complaint and the accused worker.

4. ACKNOWLEDGE THE COMPLAINT

Complaints should be acknowledged at the time of receipt or as soon as possible afterwards.

- Acknowledge the complaint with the complainant within 24 hours of the complaint being received.
- Nominate a contact person at Council for the complainant.
- Provide information about the complaint-handling process, the likely next steps and expected timeframe.

5. ASSESS THE COMPLAINT AND ADDRESS IMMEDIATE RISKS

The initial assessment of a complaint should involve the following questions being asked:

- Does the complaint raise any immediate risks to the safety or wellbeing of a child or young person or other person?
- What other issues does the complaint raise?
- What steps need to be taken to address and manage risks throughout the complaints process?
- Does the child or young person affected by the complaint (or other children involved or impacted) require any additional supports during the complaints process?
- What evidence needs to be immediately secured/protected/kept confidential?
- How serious, complicated or otherwise urgent are the issues raised in the complaint (from both the perspective of the complainant, involved child or young person and the organisation)?
- Are the issue/s raised within your organisation's control?
- Are the outcomes sought by the complainant viable?
- If more than one issue is raised, will they need to be separately addressed?
- What other authorities or agencies (e.g., police, health services) need to know about the issues raised by the complaint or be involved in the response?
- What type of information should the complainant be provided following your assessment?
- Is further information needed from the complainant in order to properly assess and resolve the complaint?

If the complaint is not about something your organisation can respond to, you should ensure that the complainant is told this and wherever possible, referred to a person or organisation that can help as quickly as possible.

Check list for when Council must report to the Independent Regulator:

- The complaint is being made against someone over the age of 18 years.
- They are engaged by the Council as a worker (within the meaning of the Act).
- The conduct or behaviour complained of is 'reportable conduct'.
- The conduct or behaviour complaint leads you to form a reasonable suspicion that the person has committed 'reportable conduct' OR the person has been convicted for that 'reportable conduct'.

6. CONDUCTING AN INVESTIGATION

After an initial Complaint Report is sent to the Independent Regulator, as soon as practicable, a Council Officer on behalf of the General Manager must:

- Investigate the reportable allegation/reportable conviction or engage an independent investigator to do so on Council's behalf (see Attachment B for indicative investigation support).

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE ALLEGATIONS AND COMPLAINT HANDLING PROCEDURE

- Inform the Independent Regulator of the identity of the body or person who will conduct the investigation.

Select the appropriate investigative approach by looking at any statutory requirements, consulting relevant external bodies (e.g. police and child protection agencies) and considering the nature of the issue or allegations raised and the likely outcome of the investigation.

Develop an investigation plan, ensuring that, where appropriate, relevant authorities are consulted and involved in its design and implementation to ensure an organisation's actions do not compromise a police or child protection investigation.

No later than 30 days after the initial complaint is reported to the Independent Regulator via the Complaint Report Form, Council must provide the following information to the Office of the Independent Regulator:

- A copy of the findings and the reasons for those findings
- Details of any disciplinary (or other) action Council has taken or proposes to take, and the reasons for that action.
- If no action is proposed to be taken, the reasons why no action is to be taken.

If for some reason Council is unable to investigate or engage an external investigator to investigate, it must notify the Independent Regulator as soon as practicable and give reasons for the non-compliance.

The obligation to investigate continues to apply even if the worker ceases to be employed or otherwise engaged by Council during the period in which the investigation is being conducted.

7. PROVIDE REGULAR UPDATES THROUGHOUT THE COMPLAINTS PROCESS

Let the complainant (and depending on the complainant's needs, also their family, guardian and/or support person) know what is happening with their complaint, when they can expect to hear from you and who to contact for more information or if they have questions about the process.

The frequency of updates and the nature and quantity of information provided to the complainant should be determined in accordance with their specific needs and wishes, and privacy and confidentiality obligations.

8. PROVIDE THE FINAL OUTCOMES

Report final findings to the complainant, the subject of complaint and other stakeholders, considering privacy, confidentiality and procedural fairness obligations.

Explain to the complainant and the subject of complaint (using the most appropriate communication channel and putting in place any necessary supports) the key steps taken to investigate the complaint, the outcome (including the reasons for your decision), and available avenues for review and/or appeal if they are dissatisfied with the outcome and/or the complaints process.

9. CLOSE THE COMPLAINT AND RECORD THE OUTCOME

Close the complaint and keep comprehensive records about:

- how the complaint was managed,
- the outcome, and
- any recommendations and/or outstanding actions and how they have been addressed.

It is also a good idea to make a record of any systemic issues identified. Invite people to provide feedback at the conclusion of the complaints process.

10. FACILITATING ONGOING SUPPORT FOR THOSE INVOLVED IN THE COMPLAINT

As part of the process for finalising complaints, Council should consider whether the person who made the complaint or a child or young person involved in the complaint (or their parents/carers) is likely to need or want ongoing support. This might include support that can be provided by Council, as well as referrals that can be facilitated to other organisations where required (for example, referrals for counselling).

11. CONTINUS IMPROVEMENT

In addition to adjusting any systems or weaknesses identified by a specific complaint or general feedback, Council should have a system for collecting, maintaining and reviewing complaints data to identify any broader trends with the aim of improving service delivery/performance.

Look for opportunities to communicate with people who have made complaints, and with stakeholders broadly, about any changes or improvements brought about through the handling of complaints, or review of complaint data. This helps people to see the tangible benefits from making complaints and may help people to feel more comfortable about raising other concerns in the future.
