Nominations open for the 2022 Waratah-Wynyard Australia Day Awards

Waratah-Wynyard Council is calling for nominations for Citizen of the Year, Young Citizen of the Year and the Community Event of the Year, with recipients being recognised for exceptional contributions to the Waratah-Wynyard municipal area.

Community members are encouraged to nominate an individual who has contributed in a significant way during 2021, or who has made a difference through sustained contributions over a number of years.

The benefits of community events can be measured in a number of ways, including economic stimulus, growing community connections or improving community health and wellbeing.

Award winners will be recognised at the annual Australia Day ceremony on January 26, 2022.

“It is important to acknowledge the noteworthy contributions that local individuals and community events can have on our municipality, and reward those that continually improve life in Waratah-Wynyard,” Mayor Robby Walsh said.

Applications will close on Tuesday, 14 December 2021. Nominations can be made via Council’s website at www.warwyn.tas.gov.au.
